Busy bees!

A bee hive, bee suit and bee hat plus training - £61

By choosing this gift you will be supporting a student and empowering them towards a career in sustainable agriculture and a bright future.

This bee-keeping course is part of a new permaculture project on regenerated arable land. Within 3 years the project will be completely self sustaining and will continue to offer employment, income and training to young adults from disadvantaged backgrounds such as the slums in Butwal and child trafficking survivors. Code: BEE

The Good Life!

A vegetable patch's worth of seeds - £7

Your gift will help to supply an area of our new permaculture project with enough seeds and tools to kick-start a year's worth of veggies. Not only will it help to feed our budding horticultural students but it will also provide them with a sustainable income and allow us to continue to grow the project, empowering disadvantaged young adults with training in the process. Code: VEG

Wheels of fortune

Two-wheeled, carbon-neutral transportation (bicycles) - £26

Our permaculture students need to be able to get to school and to the markets to sell all the wonderful produce from the project. Bicycles are the perfect mode of eco-conscious transportation - and £26 will get one for a student in Nepal. Code: BIKE

A meal to remember

25 Christmas dinners at the refuge - £9

Help to make Christmas Day one to remember this year by contributing to the festive feast for the children at the EBT refuge. We support children from many faith backgrounds so make this a day to appeal to all of the children in our care. Code: MEAL

Ted for bed

Pyjamas & a teddy - £6

Pyjamas and teddies to cuddle will bring out a great big smile, as well as a warmer night! Soft-toys are really popular with the younger children and cuddled all over the refuge. Code: PYJ

High jumpers wanted!

A thick woolly jumper - £8

Nepal in the winter is a pretty cold place with temperatures falling below zero after the sun goes down. A big woolly jumper to wrap up in and keep warm is just the ticket for children living in the EBT refuge, and will make a nice and cosy hiding-place from the chilly weather. Code: JUMP

Present sense

Christmas gifts for the children to share - £14

With Christmas fast approaching we are gearing up to get some seasonal gifts for the 131 children in our full-time refuge care. Waking up to presents is special to all children. Your gift will help to make that possible.

Hip hoop hooray

Unicycle, hula hoops and a month of circus training - £85

This gift will sponsor a student as they pursue a career in contemporary circus. Circus training is offered as part of the 'Sapana' contemporary circus programme which was created with and for trafficking survivors who expressed a desire to utilise and develop for their own benefit skills they were once forced to learn. These young adults will develop awe-inspiring skills leading to a sustainable income, while also spreading awareness about child trafficking on a global scale. Code: HOOP
